Summer Vacation
Homework
Class V

Dear VPCS Kids,

Summer holidays are finally here, and it's time for some fun and relaxation! However, learning doesn't have to stop. This holiday homework has been designed to help you keep your brain active while enjoying the break. You will find exciting and creative tasks that will allow you to practice the skills you've learned throughout the year.

Remember, these activities are meant to be fun, so take your time and enjoy completing them. It's a great way to learn new things, challenge yourself, and show how much you've grown. Don't forget to ask your parents or teachers if you need any help!

Have a wonderful summer and enjoy your homework!

General Instructions:

1. Homework should be done under parental supervision.
2. Make sure all oral syllabus is revised during the vacation, as it will help the child retain and adjust better after the long break.
3. Parents must fix a set time each day for studies. Time management should be maintained.
4. Submit the holiday homework in the first week of July.
5. Learn your father's and mother's mobile numbers.
6. Parents are advised to take dictation and practice numbers regularly in a separate practice notebook.

1. Paragraph Writing:

Write a paragraph of 100 to 200 words on "Unity in Diversity of India". Decorate the A4 size sheet with different symbols from different states of India.
